ORDERED TO MARRY, SHE GOES TO COURT

Fifteen-Year-Old Girl Is Sent to the Protectory at Her Own Request.

WILFUL, SAYS FATHER.

But She and Gerry Agents Declare He Tried to Force Her to Wed.

At her own request fifteen-year-old Maria Arace, of No. 505 East One Hundred and Sixty-sixth street, was committed by Judge Deuel, in the Children's Court, yesterday, to the Catholic Protectory, to remain there as long as she pleases. The girl told the Judge that she did not want to live with her parents, but wanted to go to some insti-tution where she could learn something and be brought up right.

On May 21 Maria was arraigned in the Children's Court charged by her father, Nicholas Arabe, with being a wilful and disobedient child. This she denied. She said that her parents whipped and otherwise ill-treated her because she would not marry a man who worked with her father in the Water Department. The Judge sent her to the Children's Society until the case could be investigated.
Yesterday Agent Farrington submitted affidavits from neighbors of the Araces which confirmed the girl's story. According to officers of the children's Society, the neighbors and members of the firm of Lyons & Cha-bot, One Hundred and Fiftieth street and Third avenue, where the girl worked for a year, Maria is a good

When she heard Judge Deuel's an-When she heard Judge Deuel's announcement that she would not have to return home, but could live as long as she wished in the Protectory, tears of joy started in her eyes. She is tall and slender and pretty. She leaned toward the Judge and said:

"I won't ever marry any one whom I don't truly love. Nothing on earth could make me marry a man whom I don't love. I am too young to marry now. I will be so glad to be where I can just grow and study and be happy while I am young."
